

The Making of Milton Keynes

DIVERSITY AND ACHIEVEMENT

It's your past, come and discover it at ...

Milton Keynes Archaeology Day 2008

Saturday 15th November 10.00am - 4.00pm

Milton Keynes Central Library

10.30am: "6000 years of settlement on the eastern margins of Milton Keynes",
Dan Stansbie, Oxford Archaeology

11.30am: "A Saxon and medieval settlement at Wolverton Turn",
Tony Walsh, Northamptonshire Archaeology

1.30pm: "A mid-Saxon cemetery in Wolverton",
Alastair Hancock, ASC Ltd

2.10pm: "Romano-British Mosaics and the Pavements from Bancroft Villa, Milton Keynes"
Dr David Neal, as seen on Channel 4's 'Time Team'

12 to 1.30pm & 3.00 to 4.00pm: Ros Tyrrell, Finds Liaison Officer for Milton Keynes and Bucks will be on hand to identify your finds

Stands and Displays from local fieldwork groups

Remember to bring along any artefacts or finds for identification.

For more information either phone 01908 254259 or

Email: archaeology@milton-keynes.gov.uk

Web: www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/archaeology

The event is FREE and open to all.

DISCOVER
MILTON KEYNES