

Photo courtesy of MKCEP

'...the ambition, opportunism, entrepreneurialism, and sheer chutzpah of what is the epic drama of CMK's development.'
(Michael Synott, Director of MK City Discovery Centre)

The Shopping Building under construction, February 1976. Lloyds Court is nearing completion top left. Bottom left is part of the original wood – retained in a large public square in front of the Shopping Building until the development of the new Marks & Spencer store.

FROM THE BOOK: THE HERITAGE OF MILTON KEYNES

The Story of the original CMK

...told by the people who shaped the initial ideas of Central Milton Keynes

