WHAT'S YOUR STORY?

Officers remember...

'I remember...

'... Running a section of the 100-mile sponsored run around Milton Keynes in 1988 for MK Hospital's Scanner appeal in boxer shorts ... It seemed a good idea at the time! We raised £2000.'

'... Escorting celebrities like John Pertwee, the Chuckle Brothers, Bob Monkhouse – and being Joanna Lumley's bodyguard for the day...!'

'... Helping build the first Christmas Displays – a real team effort by all thecentre:mk maintenance, cleaning and security staff...'

... Great fun and carried out to a high standard!'

David Huckle

'... Being one of the first Police Officers posted in the central area in July 1979 to a 'Portakabin' just behind the library – one month to get used to the area before the official opening!'

Peter Stamp

'... To give the police full powers in the longest indoor European shopping mall on private property, we had to make a "Walkway Agreement", breaking new ground in the UK – another first for Milton Keynes!'

Tim Hill, Formerly the city's first Chief Superintendent of Police
