The Milton Keynes Mix

A unique region's blend

GEMK – Global Education Milton Keynes

GEMK seeks to excite schools about our world. We have a resource centre full of artefacts from around the world, CDs, story books and teaching packs. These help teachers and other group leaders to bring the world into their activities.

So, whether you are encouraging sustainability, challenging stereotypes, promoting peaceful solutions, demonstrating links, celebrating diversity or building community cohesion, then GEMK is keen to work with you.

Our extensive experience and list of contacts enables us to help you to devise creative opportunities to include others to enrich your work: local residents from different communities and faiths, musicians, dancers and artists. We can also suggest a range of creative activities to facilitate global discussions.

We look forward to a world where we respect each other, learn from each other and share with each other – and we do what we can to help create a place where everyone's needs are met without preventing future generations from meeting their needs.
