

Discovering Places

The City's Parks

The Parks Trust, Milton Keynes

'No one in Milton Keynes is ever more than half a mile from a park.'

- Broughton Brook
- Caldecotte Brook
- Caldecotte Lake
- Campbell Park
- Canal Broadwalk
- Elfield Nature Park
- Floodplain Forest
- Furzton Lake
- Great Linford Brick Kilns
- Hazeley Wood
- Howe Park Wood
- Linford Manor Park
- Linford Wood
- Lodge Lake & Loughton
- North Loughton Valley Park
- Ouse Valley Park
- Pineham
- Shenley Wood
- Tattenhoe Valley
- Teardrop Lakes
- Tree Cathedral (Newlands)
- Walton Lake
- Waterhall Park
- Willen Lake North
- Willen Lake South

All images courtesy of The Parks Trust

Did you know that...

...The Parks Trust is responsible for:

- planting almost 100 trees and shrubs every day? – To help renew the 22 million trees and shrubs planted for the new city by Milton Keynes Development Corporation (1967-92).
- letting 55 paddocks to local horse owners? To provide grazing and shelter for around 70 animals.
- looking after the city's 24 major parks? See the map for details.