Linford Wood artworks

If you go down to the woods today you're sure of a big surprise...

Milton Keynes parks contain many fine public artworks but perhaps the most charming and captivating of them all can be found in Linford Wood. If you look carefully you might be able to find a series of wooden sculptures peeking out of the undergrowth. Look out for the chap with the flat cap, two different owls (in the trees), a man with a rolled beard, a gorilla, and a hawk with its wings outstretched. They are the work of local artist Jack Stephenson who has brought magical new life to old tree trunks.
