NPHS Accessibility statement

The Newport Pagnell Historical Society (NPHS) is a charitable organisation run by volunteers with an interest in local history, for the benefit of those who live in or locally to the town of Newport Pagnell, Buckinghamshire, UK.

NPHS uses WordPress to design and administer its website. Therefore, general information about the WordPress platform can be found at <https://en-gb.wordpress.org/about/accessibility/>. However, essentially WordPress is supposed to be fully WCAG 2.0 AA compliant where possible.

For any content (e.g. images and other documents) that NPHS members upload to the website, we try our best to ensure that they have full description, alt text, and caption information if and where appropriate. There may be the odd asset where this is not sufficiently detailed, but we try our best, and review all website assets at least once a year.

If you have any concerns or suggestions about the NPHS website, please use the contact form to get in touch with us. This is available from the 'Contact Us' page at <https://www.mkheritage.org.uk/nphs/contact-us/>
